

Congratulations, Kevin!
Winner of the Mid-South Arc's
Employee of the Year Award

Kevin is an example of someone with a strong sense of determination and commitment to lead a fulfilling work life. Through Shelby Residential and Vocational Services, Inc. (SRVS) Employment Concepts program, Kevin has been a valuable, dedicated employee of the Memphis Public Library since 1989 where he works as a Page. With the help of SRVS' follow-along services, Kevin contributes to the community through a fulfilling career and as a successful professional. Kevin receives excellent reviews for his job performance and work ethic. For more than 23 years, Kevin has held a steady job at the library. He is proud of his work and considers himself to be the guardian angel of the library's publications.
