

Congratulations, Rickey! Winner of the Mid-South Arc's Artist/Performer of the Year Award

Through his involvement in Shelby Residential and Vocational Services' (SRVS) Community Participation (CP) Program, Rickey has formed many relationships with others in his community who share his same spiritual beliefs. With help from CP staff, Rickey regularly visits local churches to perform and is a well-known caller on gospel radio talk shows. Rickey's participation in the CP program and his self-determination enabled him to fulfill a lifelong dream by recording and marketing his very own gospel CD entitled, "Rickey Frazier and Friends...It's Finally My Time!" His CD was so popular, there are none left for sale. Rickey's perseverance in achieving his goals, excitement for living touches the lives of everyone who knows him.
