

SRVS Graduates Complete Home Managers Certification

Several direct support staff from Shelby Residential and Vocational Services, Inc. (SRVS) graduated from Southwest Tennessee Community College's Home Manager Technical Certificate Program. The program certifies direct care staff in state and federal requirements for working with adults with disabilities. SRVS is a non-profit United Way agency and the largest provider for people with developmental disabilities in West Tennessee. The members of SRVS graduating class, including program officials, are (L-R): West TN Regional Director C.J. McMorrان, Talmear Singleton, Chaka Sutherland, Tonya Robinson, Lakita Evans, Mary Mosby, Patricia Dale, Jacqueline Brunt, Sharon Jamison, Angela Fears, SRVS Executive Director Jeffrie Bruton and Dr. Nancy K. Ray, Federal Court Monitor for the Arlington Court Case. Graduates not pictured are: Shaunquita Bennett, Kathy Clark, Sharon Ewing, Linda McBride, Shantina Morgan, and Adrian Walker. "I am very proud of all of the graduates of the home manager certification program. They have all worked very hard to complete this college-based program. I am especially proud of SRVS and its high performing staff who continually have the highest graduation rate of all the agencies. This is a great credit to SRVS and its commitment to its workforce," said Ray.
