

Sam's Club Grant

SRVS was awarded a check for $6,000 through the Sam's Club Giving program. The program allows store associates in their own neighborhoods to select local non-profit organizations in need of help through community grants. The Sam's Clubs at Winchester, Bartlett, Covington Pike and Getwell collectively donated their money to SRVS which will be used to support the expansion of SRVS' day center where people with disabilities are taught self-care skills, social skills and receive pre-vocational training.
